

Estonian Human Rights Centre

is an independent non-governmental human rights organisation.

The mission of EHRC is to work together for Estonia that respects the human rights of each and every person.

The vision of EHRC is to be the influential and competent leader of Estonian non-governmental human rights movement.

DID YOU KNOW:

- Over a hundred companies have joined the Diversity Charter
- 17 companies and organisations have obtained the Diverse Workplace Label
- We have worked on over 30 strategic litigation cases
- We have provided legal counselling to over 500 asylum-seekers
- We have sent information about refugees to every home in Estonia
- We conducted the first campaign on the topic of LGBT rights and against racism
- We have actively contributed to human rights advocacy in Estonia
- We have conducted dozens of international surveys

Often bad things happen just because good people are too passive. If you are troubled by intolerance and opposition to human rights, take action! We are stronger together.
